

For every bottle of wine there is a story. Of great voyages, of families and friends, enemies and wars, and of course nature, soils and great storms. There are stories of heart ache and toil, of love, marriage and thankfully, some well earned rewards.

Take a glass and add an ending to a tale that has led to this final moment.

Then remember ...

... so that the story may last.

SOMMELIER'S SELECTIONS ... New World

I see the great strength of this list in its balance. We have offered at every turn of the page a varietal world wines prepared for boldness - of concentration, fruit and structure. From our old world wines Consider the offerings of both new and old world so that you may have something original to think

Late Disgorged Yarrabank Cuvée 2001, Upper Yarra Valley / Mornington Peninsula 105

Yering Station, in partnership with Champagne Devaux bring you this little masterpiece hot off the labeling line. After eight years on lees this meticulous sparkling wine offers apple pie, hazelnuts and yeasty minerals. In the makers own words "a crescendo of complexity".

Poole's Rock Chardonnay 2006, Hunter Valley 130

Chief Winemaker since 2004, Usher Tinkler has produced a spellbinding alluvial estate-grown Chardonnay from the winery's Pokolbin vineyard. Top quality fruit and six months on French oak has given this wine beautiful concentration and elegant, soft, toasty characteristics.

Clonakilla Viognier 2008, Canberra Districts 160

Tim Kirk's benchmark Viognier shows intense honeysuckle, spicy pear and apricot on the nose. The fleshy palate showcases exotic fruits, with a classic rich, oily texture..... leading to a fresh, lengthy finish.

The Eyrie Vineyards Reserve Pinot Noir 2003, Willamette Valley, USA 175

The Eyrie Vineyards were established in the Dundee Hills of Oregon by David and Diana Lett in 1966. They were the first to produce Pinot Noir and Chardonnay in this now legendary region. An elegant Pinot of delicate earth, herbs and minerals with defining bitter dark red fruits.

Summerfield Cabernet Sauvignon 1992, Pyrenees Ranges 246

Mark and his late brother Craig Summerfield along with their father Ian produced a wine that seems to just get better and better over time. The vintage on this bright, exuberant red wine might spell doubt for some Australian wine enthusiasts. Put your doubts aside and try it. Gentle leather and earth nuances are wrapped up in rich red fruit cake.

Alluviale 'Anobli' Botrytis Sauvignon Blanc 2008, Hawkes Bay, NZ 95

David Ramonteu's family has an estate in Jurançon and his partner Kate Gollaway is an established Chief Winemaker in the Hawkes Bay region. If this wasn't enough reason to warrant trying this beguiling sticky ... those amazing 270g worth of delicious, caramel and ripe pear residual sugars ought to be.

and stylistic mirror between the wines of the new world and those of the old. From our new look for great finesse, earthiness, and above all elegance. My advice to you is to be brave. about tomorrow from the wonderful world of fine wine. Enjoy.

Daniel Wegener

- Egly - Ouriet 'Blanc de Noirs' NV, Champagne, France 263
All sourced from the single vineyard 'Les Crayeres', the fruit pressed to produce this extraordinary Champagne is 100% Grand Cru Pinot Noir from 60 year old vines. With rich gold colour, a nose of pepper, ginger and black-fruits, and flavours of chalky peaches and raspberries.
- Coffele 'Castrum Icirini' Chardonnay 2006, Veneto, Italy 102
This is an impressive wine. Some Italian Chardonnay is wonderfully powerful, rich and textured, others have softness and subtlety. Coffele has produced this wine with all those attributes. Try it with confidence.
- Martin Codax 'Lias', Albariño 2006 Rias Baixas, Spain 132
From the North Western Galician region of Spain, albariño has fast become one of Spain's most exported white styles. This premium wine from an uncompromising producer offers clean, fresh, pear and apple with a salty, mineral ocean mid palate.
- Domaine de Bellivière, 'Calligramme' 2006, Loire Valley, France 180
Jasnières, an almost forgotten but historic AOC within the Loire Valley produces some of the best Chenin Blanc around. Eric Nicolas has produced Calligramme from vines no younger than fifty years and represents the young new wave of Jasnières wine-making.
- Quinta Vale D. Maria 2005, Douro D.O.C, Douro Valley, Portugal 175
The Douro Valley is the birthplace of our beloved Port wines. Using the same grapes but refining their methods producers like Vale D. Maria have created red wines of great texture, intensity and regional charm. This wine is powerful and bright with delicious baked fruit flavours.
- Coffele 'Le Sponde' Recioto di Soave 2007, Veneto, Italy 152
From a region famous for its luscious and powerful wines this dessert wine is no exception. Produced using the recioto method of drying the Garganega grapes before fermenting them into an opulent sweet nectar.

Congratulations Ryan Aggiss of Flying Fish Cove, Margaret River.
 The Wine Society's 2009 Young Winemaker of the year.

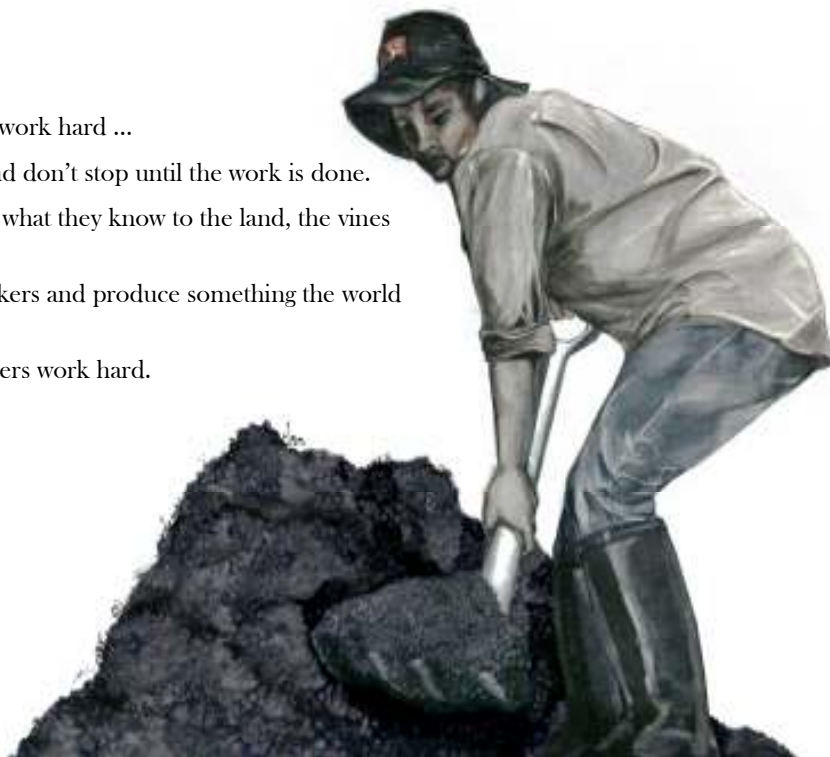

All good young winemakers work hard ...

They do what they're told and don't stop until the work is done.

Some think freely and apply what they know to the land, the vines and the winery.

A few become great winemakers and produce something the world adores ...

But all good young winemakers work hard.

- 2006 Fromm Spätlese Riesling, Marlborough, New Zealand (150ml) 26
A wonderfully intense wine of simple, stunning appearance that offers depth and a delicious array of opulent fruit and spice characters. The dessert wine for those who don't like dessert wine. Delicious with Mangosteen.
- 2008 Moscato D'Asti Cascinetta Vietti, DOCG, Piemonte, Italy (125ml) 21
Colour between light straw to liquid gold, medium body with flavours and aromas of wild flowers, thyme, oregano and honey. All coming with its light sparkle to make a wine suited for fruit based desserts. For our Snow Egg.
- NV Renardat Fache 'Méthode Ancestrale' Bugey - Cerdon, France (125ml) 24
You are forgiven if this title appears foreign and a little intimidating. Be assured the wine is neither. From the grapes Gamay and Pousard this vividly fresh, red fruit fizz is just so much fun and should be compulsory for the Fraises des Bois.
- 2007 Jurançon Clos Uroulat Charles Hours, South West France (90ml) 27
One of the earliest appellations in France, and famous as the baptism wine of Kings, Jurançon Moelleux is a dynamic sweet wine made with the indigenous grape variety Petit Manseng. It has undertaken Passerillé, whereby the grapes are partially dried on the vines. Wonderful with any dessert.
- 2007 Coffele 'Le Sponde' Recioto di Soave, Veneto, Italy (90ml) 27
Take the ripest Garganega grapes from old vines in Veneto and dry them on mats of straw in the sun for weeks or months, until they become delicious, soft raisins, then press them. For the Cheese.
- Noval 20 Year Old Tawny, Oporto, Portugal (60ml) 28
*This wine is truly delicious. From the Douro Valley's Cima Corgo, Noval have produced quality port wines since 1715. From 100% estate grown berries, this fortified wine shows intense walnut, spice, and barrels full of sun dried dark fruits.
A must with our Chocolate Cake or Cheese.*
- 2006 Inniskillin Icewine Oak Aged Vidal, Niagara, Canada (60ml) 45
- 2004 Inniskillin Icewine Cabernet Franc, Niagara, Canada (60ml) 55
Elegant but powerful wines produced by Canada's most prized winery. These grapes are harvested frozen at temperatures between -8°C and -12°C to maximize fruit concentration and quality. Served in Riedel Icewine specific crystal.
